

"ERASING THE NUBA"

a Portobello Film Festival 2012 Official Selection and 21st UN Human Rights Council Screening

For months the government of Sudan has been bombing the state of South Kordofan, forcing nearly half a million people to flee into caves and thousands into South Sudan as refugees. This is the story of the resilience of those people.

Thursday 29th November at 7.30pm

Frontline Club

13 Norfolk Place, London W2 1 QJ

Guest speakers:

Dr Mukesh Kapila, Former head of UN in Sudan in 2004

Yoletta Nyange, Rwandan-born journalist and director of Erasing the Nuba

Zaki Samwii, Chairperson, Nuba Mountains Solidarity Abroad

Ezzeldine Rahma, Founder of HUDU, a human rights organisation in the Nuba Mountains

RSVP: Delia.Antemie@hart-uk.org

Supported by Aegis, HART and Waging Peace

